Opening Remarks

Scottish Peace Platform Inception Workshop

Tim Epple, Edinburgh Law School

19 August 2025

I. Objectives

- ‘to coordinate, connect, and amplify Scotland's diverse peacebuilding stakeholders and initiatives’

Transformation to End
War

III. Context

- Scotland's history and positionality
- Peacebuilding sector is diverse and partly siloed
- Initial report recommendations
- Changing nature of conflict and peacebuilding
- Backlash against WPS
- ODA cuts

IV. Learning from others

- UK networks:
 - Scotland's International Development Alliance
 - Scottish Council on Global Affairs
 - Scottish Peace Network
 - Gender Action for Peace and Security UK
- Other national networks:
 - Swiss Platform for Peacebuilding
 - FriEnt Germany
- Feminist peace networks:
 - European Peacebuilding Liaison Office
 - West Africa Network for Peacebuilding

V. Assumptions

- Need to confront prevailing power structures to build peace
- Platform must be inclusive and offer sth. unique to add value
- Platform comes to life if members drive activities
- Scottish peacebuilders want to learn from peacebuilders from elsewhere, and vice versa
- 'Network fatigue' will have to be overcome

VI. Principles: To be discussed

Example: Values of the Women's International League for Peace & Freedom

HUMAN RIGHTS

CARE AND COMMUNITY

ANTI-MILITARISM

SOLIDARITY

ANTI-RACISM

NONVIOLENCE

ECOLOGICAL SUSTAINABILITY

VII. Approach: To be discussed

Example: Approach of the Women's International League for Peace & Freedom

We are committed to a feminist approach to peace that is built on:

| | | | | |
|---|-----------------------|---|--|---------------------------------|
|  | Strength in diversity | + |  | Centring lived experience |
|  | Intersectionality | + |  | Learning and sharing |
|  | Transforming power | + |  | Collaboration and participation |
